Message from the Ambassador Eugene Chien

Dear sustainability partners who care about the future of our planet,

We warmly welcome you to participate in the 2026 5th SDG Asia Expo, organized by the Taiwan Institute for Sustainable Energy. Under the theme “Shape Our Future: Resilience, Innovation, Prosperity,” this year’s Expo will take place from August 27 to 29, 2026, at Taipei World Trade Center Hall 1. Admission is free with online registration.

As global momentum toward sustainable development, net-zero transition, climate resilience and economic transformation continues to accelerate, sustainable development and ESG have become central issues on the international agenda. Building on our long-standing foundation in promoting corporate sustainability, talent cultivation, sustainability awards and international exchange, TAISE will bring together the 2026 Asia-Pacific and Taiwan Sustainability Action Awards and the Asia-Pacific Sustainable Expo Awards. We invite government agencies, enterprises, financial institutions, academia, healthcare organizations, educational institutions, NGOs and partners from across society to gather and showcase the achievements of Taiwan and the Asia-Pacific region in net-zero transition, social innovation and cross-sector collaboration.

The 2026 Expo will feature nine major thematic exhibition areas, covering Sustainable Ecosystem, Sustainable Living, Sustainable Tourism, Sustainable Partnerships, Sustainable Architecture, Sustainable Education, Sustainable Healthcare, Sustainable Finance, and Sustainable Solutions. These areas will present achievements in policies, technologies, systems and practical applications, while bringing together successful cases and innovative solutions from Taiwan and around the world. Together, they will guide stakeholders across the Asia-Pacific region in exploring the next strategic blueprint for sustainability.

During the Expo, a series of SDG Asia stage events will also be held, focusing on sustainable development trends, international exchange and industrial innovation. Through forums, workshops and thematic programs, the Expo will provide diverse agendas and platforms for dialogue, presenting the latest progress and practices in sustainability across sectors. Venues will include the Main Stage, International Forum Stage, Sustainability Salon Stage and Net Zero Stage, with the aim of fostering deeper dialogue and cooperation among industry, government, academia, research institutions and international partners.

MESSAGE

Since its establishment in 2007, TAISE has been dedicated to advocating corporate sustainability, advancing sustainability education, promoting international exchange and organizing sustainability awards and competitions. We have also actively cultivated sustainability professionals. Through this year’s Expo, we look forward to guiding industry, government, academia and research communities to share resources, deepen cooperation, enhance the global visibility of Taiwan’s sustainability actions, and bring the concept of sustainable development into every corner of society. Sustainability is not only a source of Taiwan’s competitiveness, but also an essential action for our shared global future. We sincerely invite partners from all sectors to join us. With resilience as our foundation, innovation as our engine and prosperity as our shared strength, let us work together to shape a sustainable future for the Asia-Pacific region.

About the Taiwan Institute for Sustainable Energy Advancing Sustainability in Taiwan, Connecting with the World

Founded in 2007, the Taiwan Institute for Sustainable Energy (TAISE) has long upheld its mission of becoming a global platform for Taiwan sustainability. TAISE is dedicated to serving as an important accelerator for Taiwan's sustainability transformation.

TAISE focuses on the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), climate change, sustainable energy, biodiversity, net-zero transition, corporate sustainability governance, sustainable finance, healthcare sustainability, university sustainability, and youth sustainability education. Through cross-sector collaboration, TAISE seeks to turn sustainability from an idea into practice, from advocacy into institutional action, and from individual initiatives into broader social transformation.

To make sustainability efforts more systematic and enduring, TAISE has established a comprehensive organizational structure and professional division of responsibilities. The Social Impact Center (SIC) promotes the SDGs, youth engagement, and public advocacy. The Corporate Consulting and Services Center (CCS) supports companies in understanding sustainability trends, adopting sustainability governance, and strengthening ESG practices. The Taiwan Corporate Sustainability Awards Committee (TCSA) recognizes outstanding achievements through credible award systems and evaluation mechanisms, while encouraging continuous improvement across sectors. The Taiwan Academy of Corporate Sustainability (TACS) develops professional courses, certification programs, and practical training to cultivate sustainability talent. The Office of Sustainability Mission (OSM) leads cross-sector advocacy, international cooperation, research projects, and strategic initiatives. The Administration Department (ADMIN) supports accounting, human resources, general affairs, and internal operations, providing an essential foundation for the stable development of the Foundation. Over the years, TAISE has connected government, industry, academia, research institutions, healthcare organizations, and civil society through diverse platforms, including sustainability awards, professional education, certification training, forums, policy advocacy, international exchange, judge training, knowledge sharing, and the SDG Asia Expo, working together to advance sustainability in Taiwan.

Looking ahead, TAISE will continue to pursue its mission of advancing sustainability in Taiwan and connecting with the world. We will bring together more partners, cultivate more talent, and create sustainability actions that are learnable, measurable, and scalable. Sustainability is not only a goal for the future; it is a way of life and a shared responsibility that begins today.

National Taipei University

National Taipei University

國立臺北大學自 1949 年臺灣省立地方行政專校創校迄今，歷經省立法商學院、省立中興大學法商學院、國立中興大學法商學院各發展階段，於 2000 年奉准改制「國立臺北大學」，現校本部位於新北市三峽區，並與三峽北大特區形成緊密生活圈，是為國內少見的「大學城」。自 106 年啟動「大學社會責任實踐計畫」（USR）以來，國立臺北大學不僅通過試辦計畫的檢驗，更在種子型計畫培育、萌芽型及深耕型 USR 計畫持續發揮影響力。USR 已成為本校校務發展重點之一：在校務發展主軸六明訂「實踐永續治理」，並納入 115-119 年中長程校務發展重點項目之一「落實大學永續發展，實踐大學社會責任，提升永續大學影響力排名」，用以凸顯 USR 在校務發展之重要地位。USR 計畫不僅是願景的實現，更是推動「師生社會創新」的具體行動，將學術研究、在地連結與國際貢獻緊密結合。本校透過三個 USR 計畫所建構之環境面的低碳管理、社會面的高齡服務、治理面的人文重塑與再生，來達成本校 USR「落實大學治理，提升大學永續發展，推動公私協力，營造健全 USR 生態體系」之發展使命。

National Taipei University (NTPU)

Founded in 1949 as the Taiwan Provincial Local Government Training School, National Taipei University (NTPU) has undergone several stages of development, including its evolution into the Taiwan Provincial College of Law and Business, the College of Law and Business at National Chung Hsing University, and ultimately, in 2000, its reorganization into National Taipei University. The main campus is located in Sanxia District, New Taipei City, forming a close-knit "university town" with the Sanxia Beida District, a unique feature among universities in Taiwan. Following the launch of the University Social Responsibility (USR) initiative in 2017, NTPU has not only successfully passed the pilot phase but has also continued to expand its influence through seed, sprout, and deep-cultivation USR projects. USR has been established as a core pillar of the university's development. Specifically, "Practicing Sustainable Governance" is defined as the sixth major axis of institutional development and is integrated into the 2026–2030 Mid-to-Long-Term Development Plan under the goal: "Implementing University Sustainability, Practicing University Social Responsibility, and Enhancing Global Sustainability Rankings."

The USR initiative at NTPU is not just an aspirational goal but a concrete step toward fostering "social innovation among faculty and students" by integrating academic research, local engagement, and international contributions. Through its three USR projects, NTPU focuses on achieving its mission to "enhance university governance, promote sustainable development, strengthen public-private partnerships, and build a robust USR ecosystem." These projects address:

- Environmental sustainability through low-carbon management,
- Social impact through services for the aging population,
- Governance innovation through cultural rejuvenation and regeneration.

臺北市立內湖高級中學

Taipei Municipal Neihu Senior High School

臺北市立內湖高級中學以「從議題探究走向行動實踐」為永續發展教育核心，積極串聯企業與非營利組織資源，將真實社會議題帶入課程。本校與萬家福（原家樂福）、台灣動物社會研究會合作，聚焦「永續消費與動物福利」，從學生熟悉的日常消費出發，自主探究動物福利標章、洗選蛋制度、非籠飼雞蛋等議題。透過企業場域參訪、專業講師分享、資料蒐集與議題討論，引導學生理解不同生產模式與動物福利、食品安全、產業發展及消費選擇的關係，並進一步思考消費者所能發揮的影響力。我們期待學生不只認識 SDGs，更能看見問題、理解議題、做出選擇並付諸行動，從日常生活實踐永續理念，培養全球公民意識。

Neihu High School places "From Inquiry to Action" at the heart of its Education for Sustainable Development (ESD), actively connecting with businesses and nonprofit organizations to bring real-world sustainability issues into the classroom. In collaboration with Home-Fortune (formerly Carrefour) and the Environment & Animal Society of Taiwan (EAST), we focus on sustainable consumption and animal welfare. Starting from their everyday consumption choices, students independently explore issues such as animal welfare labels, egg washing and grading systems, and cage-free eggs. Through corporate site visits, expert talks, research, and issue-based discussions, students examine the connections among production practices, animal welfare, food safety, industry development, and consumer choices, while reflecting on the impact consumers can make. Our goal is for students to go beyond simply learning about the SDGs. We encourage them to identify issues, understand their complexity, make informed choices, and take action—putting sustainability into practice in everyday life while developing a strong sense of global citizenship.

Under the theme “GO ZERO!,” the MOEA Pavilion brings together the achievements of Taipower and CPC Corporation, Taiwan in ecological coexistence and energy resilience, along with the Circular Economy Promotion Office (CEPO)’s work in advancing low-carbon industrial upgrading. Using the concept of a “watershed” as its spatial narrative, the Pavilion guides visitors along the flow of water to discover green power generation and fishway ecology, smart grids, seaweed cultivation using LNG cold discharge water, CCUS technologies, innovative green materials, and low-carbon process demonstrations. Together, these exhibits show how energy transition, carbon management, and industrial circularity can work in concert to advance Taiwan’s net-zero initiatives.

The Pavilion also extends its sustainability concept into the exhibition design itself. Guided by low-carbon construction, material reuse, exhibit recycling and relocation, and energy-saving principles, it incorporates digital displays to reduce single-use production materials and creates an interactive learning journey that combines education with engagement. By embedding sustainability into both the exhibition space and the visitor experience, the Pavilion carries its impact beyond the event.

Chiayi City Government

嘉義市是一座踏著緩慢的步調，在追求當代的同時，仍保有一些堅持與老靈魂的城市，有自己的性格與風骨，值得細細品味。作為阿里山入口門戶，過去是著名的木產業城市，現今市區仍留存了六千餘棟的木屋，密度全國最高；面對 2050 淨零排放，減碳和永續成為必要的顯學，每個城市都需要面對。

我們推動「新永續淨零旗艦計畫」，以「讓永續融入治理」、「讓永續成為生活」及「讓永續轉為商機」建構淨零施政基礎，並於 2025 年正式實施「嘉義市淨零排放永續管理自治條例」，透過「減碳」、「節電」、「綠運」、「減廢」及「綠生活」六大領域策略，以「共好」精神，帶動城市大步邁向「經濟共榮、社會共創、環境共生」三面向邁進，實踐永續幸福城市。

Chiayi City is a city that moves at a gentle pace; while embracing modernity, we preserve a steadfast "old soul" and a unique character that rewards those who take the time to savor it.

As the gateway to Alishan, Chiayi City was once a renowned hub for the timber industry. Today, the city remains home to over 6,000 wooden structures—the highest density in Taiwan. Facing the challenge of "2050 Net Zero Emissions," carbon reduction and sustainability have become essential priorities that every city must address.

We are actively promoting the "New Sustainability of Net Zero Project," establishing a foundation for governance based on three pillars: "Integrating Sustainability into Governance," "Making Sustainability a Way of Life," and "Transforming Sustainability into Business Opportunities."

In 2025, the "Chiayi City Net-zero Sustainability Management Self-government Ordinance" officially took effect. Through strategies in six key areas—Carbon Reduction, Energy Conservation, Green Transportation, Waste Reduction, and Green Living—we embrace the spirit of "Common Good." We are leading the city toward a future of Economic Prosperity, Social Co-creation, and Environmental Coexistence, fulfilling our vision of a Sustainable and Happy City.

繼去年首度推出導覽志工獲得熱烈反響，台灣永續能源研究基金會（以下簡稱本會）今年特別開辦「2026 永續導覽員培訓專班」。本專班旨在培育具備 ESG 趨勢洞察與專業轉譯能力之人才，讓導覽員成為串聯展覽與觀眾之間的橋樑，引導大眾深度體驗跨領域合作的永續成果。

歡迎各界對永續領域充滿熱忱的人士加入行列，將永續的種子傳播至每位觀展者的心中。

Following the overwhelming response to last year's pilot sustainability docent volunteer initiative, the Taiwan Institute for Sustainable Energy (TAISE) has officially launched the "Sustainability Interpretation Training Program" this year. The program aims to nurture professionals equipped with ESG trend insights and professional interpretation skills, empowering guides to serve as vital bridges that connect exhibitions with the audience, and leading the public to deeply experience the fruits of cross-sector collaboration.

Participants in this program will receive systematic professional training, enjoy free admission to the Expo, and be awarded certificates of study hours alongside official Sustainability Guide Certification upon completion. We envision guiding not merely as delivering standard explanations, but as a path to professional self-advancement.

We welcome individuals from all sectors who are passionate about sustainability to join our ranks and plant the seeds of sustainability in the hearts of every visitor.

TAISE 主題館介紹

TAISE PAVILION

台灣永續能源研究基金會（TAISE）主題館以「生活即永續」為核心概念，期望在互動體驗中讓民眾理解基金會的使命與服務。現場打造熟悉的生活場景並搭配情境模擬，透過線上心理測驗結合實體沉浸式體驗，讓民眾在選擇中一探背後的永續意義，同時測出屬於自己的永續價值觀與角色。完成後，每位民眾都能和專屬結果在打卡牆留下紀念、獲得行動建議以及御守套章。展場則以「綠色展場」為目標，大量採用可重複使用的組合架與鋼架、可回收紙板輸出；少量布掛軸更將於展後製成限量手提袋，讓每項材料都發揮更好的價值。

Built around the theme "Living Sustainability", the Taiwan Institute for Sustainable Energy (TAISE) pavilion invites visitors to discover the Institute's mission and work through hands-on experience. The space recreates familiar everyday settings paired with scenario-based simulations, combining an online personality quiz with an immersive on-site journey. As visitors make choices, they uncover the sustainability meaning behind each one—and discover their own sustainability values and persona along the way. At the end, each visitor receives a personalized result to commemorate at the photo wall, along with tailored action tips and a collectible omamori stamp set. The pavilion itself is designed as a "green exhibition": it makes extensive use of reusable modular frames and steel structures with fully recyclable cardboard prints, while a few fabric wall hangings will be remade into limited-edition tote bags after the show—giving every material a second life and a greater purpose.

每一部微電影，都記錄著一個改變世界的開始。

台北金鵬微電影展相信，影像擁有跨越產業、跨越世代、跨越語言的力量。

一部短短幾分鐘的作品，不只是創作，更是一個理念、一項行動、一段正在發生的永續故事。

十年來，金鵬微電影展邀請產官學研各界，以鏡頭分享臺灣的永續實踐，讓更多人看見改變，也讓更多改變因此發生。

邁向下一個十年，我們將持續用影像串聯世界，讓每一個故事，都成為推動永續的力量。

The Beginning of the Next Decade of Sustainability.

Every micro movie begins with a story—and captures the power to create change.

The Taipei Golden Eagle Micro Movie Festival believes that storytelling through film has the power to connect people across industries, generations, and languages. In just a few minutes, a micro movie is more than a creative work—it sparks an idea, inspires action, and shares an unfolding story of sustainability.

For the past decade, the Festival has brought together businesses, government agencies, schools, healthcare institutions, nonprofits, and many others to share Taiwan's sustainability journey through authentic stories on screen—making meaningful change more visible and inspiring even more of it.

As we begin the next decade, we remain committed to connecting the world through film, celebrating stories that matter, and empowering every story to drive a sustainable future.

The award will be granted in three categories: (1) Sustainability Action Awards for implementation of SDGs by all fields of expertise; (2) Most Livable City Excellence Award for local governments, efforts in implementing sustainable governance and achieving sustainable cities; and (3) Outstanding Chief Sustainability Award for individuals who have made outstanding contributions and efforts in promoting corporate sustainable development.

- 當今世界正面臨日益嚴峻的環境挑戰，資源短缺與氣候變遷問題已成為全球關注的焦點。在這樣的背景下，永續發展逐漸成為各行各業的核心理念，而會展產業作為推動商業與文化交流的重要平台，更肩負著實踐永續發展的重要責任。
- 透過選擇環保材料、實施節能措施以及降低碳排放，會展活動能夠在與參展企業及觀眾的互動中，引領永續理念的實踐，成為推動環境保護與社會進步的重要力量。

- 隨著綠色經濟及 ESG（環境、社會、治理）投資理念的興起，會展產業的價值與影響力愈加受到重視。亞太地區憑藉其多元文化與經濟蓬勃發展的優勢，具備成為推動永續會展發展的理想條件。在此環境中，會展行業透過實踐永續理念，不僅是對環境及社會的責任，也是提升產業競爭力與實現轉型升級的絕佳契機。
- 為鼓勵亞太地區會展產業在活動籌辦及運作中全面融入永續理念，台灣永續能源研究基金會特別設立「亞太永續會展獎」。此獎項旨在表彰會展活動中推動環境保護、節能減碳與善盡社會責任的企業與機構，並透過典範的力量，引領業界進一步落實永續目標。
- 透過這個獎項的推動，我們期望能鼓舞亞太地區的會展業者以創新與行動，實踐對環境、社會與經濟和諧發展的承諾，同時促進業界的經驗分享與理念交流，共同邁向更加綠色、永續的未來。

- Today, the world is facing increasingly severe environmental challenges. Resource scarcity and climate change have become critical global concerns. Against this backdrop, sustainable development has emerged as a guiding principle across industries. As an essential platform for business collaboration, knowledge exchange, and cultural engagement, the meetings, incentives, conferences, and exhibitions (MICE) industry bears a significant responsibility for advancing sustainable development.
- By adopting environmentally friendly materials, implementing energy-efficient measures, and reducing carbon emissions, MICE events can integrate sustainability into every stage of planning and operation. Through meaningful engagement with exhibitors, participants, and stakeholders, these events can inspire sustainable practices and serve as a driving force for environmental stewardship and social progress.

- With the rapid growth of the green economy and the increasing emphasis on Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) principles, the value and influence of the MICE industry have become more significant than ever. The Asia-Pacific region, characterized by its cultural diversity and dynamic economic growth, is uniquely positioned to lead the advancement of sustainable MICE. Embracing sustainability not only demonstrates environmental and social responsibility but also enhances industry competitiveness while creating opportunities for innovation and transformation.
- To encourage the MICE industry across the Asia-Pacific region to fully integrate sustainability into event planning and operations, the Taiwan Institute for Sustainable Energy (TAISE) established the Asia-Pacific Sustainable MICE Awards. The Awards recognize outstanding organizations and enterprises that demonstrate excellence in environmental protection, energy conservation, carbon reduction, and social responsibility through their MICE events. By showcasing exemplary practices, the Awards aim to inspire the industry to further advance sustainable development.
- Through the promotion of these Awards, we hope to encourage MICE professionals throughout the Asia-Pacific region to transform their commitment to sustainability into meaningful action and innovation. At the same time, we seek to foster knowledge sharing, collaboration, and the exchange of best practices, working together to build a greener, more resilient, and more sustainable future.

Introduction to 2026 Asia-Pacific and Taiwan Sustainability Action Awards

In 2015, the United Nations announced the “2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development” and adopted 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), clearly outlining the global direction of efforts from 2016 to 2030. Over the past nine years, organizations around the world have integrated the SDGs into their internal cultures and adopted innovative strategies to implement sustainable development. Many inspiring breakthroughs and success stories have already emerged. To fully showcase the vibrant efforts toward sustainability in Taiwan and the Asia-Pacific region, the “2026 5th Asia-Pacific Sustainability Action Awards (APSAA)” and the “6th Taiwan Sustainability Action Awards (TSAA)” will be jointly held under the unified name “2026 Asia-Pacific and Taiwan Sustainability Action Awards” (hereinafter referred to as “the Awards”). These awards aim to recognize outstanding achievements and contributions in implementing the 17 UN SDGs, and the award ceremony will be held in conjunction with the 5th Asia-Pacific Sustainability Expo and Summit to promote international exchange of sustainability achievements.

The Asia-Pacific Sustainability Action Awards (APSAA) will present honors in three main categories:

1. Sustainability Action Award: This category recognizes organizations that have demonstrated outstanding achievements and significant contributions in implementing the United Nations' 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
2. Most Livable City Excellence Award: This category recognizes cities demonstrating excellence in building inclusive, safe, resilient and sustainable communities.
3. The Outstanding Chief Sustainability Officer Award: This category recognizes senior executives who demonstrate exceptional leadership in integrating ESG principles throughout their organizations, driving sustainable business transformation and positive impact.

The Taiwan Sustainability Action Awards (TSAA) will be presented in two main categories:

1. Taiwan Sustainability Action Award – Encouraging all sectors to practice the SDGs;
2. Taiwan Outstanding Youth in Sustainability Award – Recognizing young individuals who have long utilized their professional expertise and social resources to contribute to sustainable development from the perspectives of environmental protection, social inclusion, and economic growth.

This year’s awards ceremony will be held in conjunction with the Asia-Pacific Sustainability Expo and Summit. It is expected to bring together enterprises, universities, and government agencies from Taiwan, Japan, South Korea, and other Asia-Pacific countries. In 2025, the event attracted over 180 exhibitors from public and private sectors and more than 50,000 visitors, demonstrating high international visibility and social impact. Through this international gathering, we aim to provide attendees with insights into outstanding practices and innovative initiatives in SDGs, ESG, CSR, DEI, and USR from various sectors at home and abroad. This is expected to spark cross-industry collaboration and create opportunities to expand into domestic and international markets, thereby driving business innovation and enhancing global competitiveness.
